Message from Ian

One of the things I've come to enjoy about working in a country parish is the way seasons are marked.

In the urban world I lived in before going to prison we certainly celebrated Christmas and Easter. Mothering Sunday was touched on and remembrance Sunday was nodded to.

Working in the benefice for the past couple of years has opened my eyes to see just how important seasons are to a community. I was so impressed to see how the whole community came together to carry out Remembrance Sunday and enjoyed the rogation services in Wield and Northington.

At the heart of our celebrating the changing seasons is harvest. In an urban setting I often found churches struggled with harvest. If you asked the question about where food comes from many people would say Tesco or Sainsburys or if they are a bit posh, Waitrose. In a rural parish we see where food comes from because it is in the fields before our eyes. We see the incredibly hard work our farmers have put in to have a successful harvest and perhaps especially in this difficult year

So, at this time of year having the desire to acknowledge the harvest is something that runs deep. In each of our churches over this month there will be harvest thanksgivings. Even if you don't have much faith you are still welcome to come and say thanks.

However, it is one thing to say thanks it is another thing to being thankful. Food is something that perhaps we take for granted. Living in a relatively wealthy area it can be easy to lose sight that in Basingstoke and Winchester there are real instances where people struggle to effectively feed their families.

You can show thanks by contributing to the food banks. Being thankful by sharing a little of what we have with those in need.

Monument for William and Margery Wallop

In the chancel of St James, Wield, is a remarkable monument to William Wallop and his third wife, Margery. Born in about 1553, he was educated at Oxford, then set up as a merchant in Southampton. Here he took a leading role as a burgess, later twice becoming mayor. He was elected to Parliament; MP for Lymington in 1586, then MP for Southampton in 1597. Afterwards he was sheriff of Hampshire. He died aged 64 on 15 November 1617, three years after marrying his third wife, Margery.

William made his will on 17 December 1616, in which he left £50 for his tomb, £100 for funeral expenses out of which £10 to be given to the poor, additionally £100 to the town of Southampton to help poor young men set up in trade.

The monument is of exceptional quality, amongst the best in Hampshire. Carved from alabaster, it features effigies of William, dressed in armour (though it is doubtful he ever saw military service), and Margery in the latest fashion of the time, her hat and hairstyle especially attractive. We do not know who made it, but the setting likely emerged from a Netherlandish workshop in Southwark, London, where many 'tomb makers' operated in this period.

By the mid-twentieth century the monument was in poor shape. Their hands had been destroyed and replaced with ill-fitting substitutes, whilst the paintwork had become shabby. Inger Norholt, a conservator then working in Hampshire, was commissioned by the Wallops in 1972 to restore the monument. She carved new hands, made a number of repairs to the alabaster work, repainted the heraldic display and also the plaque carrying the effusive elegy. Of the 70 or so monuments that Miss Norholt repaired, the Wallop setting is one of her best restorations.

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER - August 2025

With so many members away or busy during August no monthly meeting was arranged. The Summer Lunch was brought forward to July so that more members of the group would be able to attend. The lunch was held at Easton Village Hall with its lovely outlook onto the cricket pitch, members and guests were welcomed with a drink and able to circulate and chat before lunch. The tables looked very summery with pretty vases of flowers and there was a table quiz to ponder over in-between courses. The Committee had prepared the delicious first course of cold salmon, Coronation chicken, salad, potato salad and bread and members of the group had provided a wonderful array of desserts. Coffee and mints were served at the end, plus the raffle and quiz answers. A couple of local girls helped with clearing and washing up, they were very efficient and allowed the Committee to relax and enjoy the event.

The Alresford Show Saturday 6th September Our WI has agreed to help in the tea tent at the show this year from 12.30 to 2.30. The members helping will be Julia Barber, Rosemary Bligh, Lizzie Laird, Felicity Mathews, Gill Graham Maw, Kate Norrie, Vera Smith and Erica Sisk. Several members have offered to make cakes for the tea tent and expenses can be reclaimed.

Sewing Group The next sewing session will be held at Old Alresford Village Hall on Tuesday 19th August and will be held on the third Tuesday of every month thereafter.

Future Talks and Events Some interesting speakers have been arranged for later in the year such as "A Personal History of the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane" and "Dream Interpretations" plus the ever popular Lasagne Lunch in January 2026!

The next meeting at Swarraton & Northington Village Hall is at 2pm on Tuesday 2nd September 2025 with a talk titled "Falconry" - A Talk About Anita's Hawks With The Possibility Of Some Being In Attendance By Anita Ebdon who has advised that the hawks and owl are very used to being around humans.

Tea hostesses - Vera Smith and Margaret Sweetland

Flowers - Rosemary Bligh

Guests are also always welcome at any of the speaker meetings for a small charge of £5.

Please will members not able to attend send their apologies to Gill Graham Maw

Walking with Wildlife, Robert Bryant

There's a noticeable pause in the world of summer bird song, a quieter time in late July and August when the breeding season is largely over and many birds are either tucked away moulting or feeding up ready for the autumn migration. Some bird species though persist with their territorial calls, showing remarkable verve and pace. On arable downland with mature hedges, yellowhammers in particular hold forth with seemingly endless chants, variations on the theme of 'a little bit of bread and no cheese ...please'. The unusual name of these birds may derive from an Old English word for a bunting with yellow feathers.

At the end of a glorious day of blue skies and bright sunshine, we were returning home from an evening stroll here at Northington Down, passing hedges bobbed blue-black with a fine crop of sloes. Looking up at the topmost branches of an ash tree just ahead of us, we could see one of these farmland buntings, lit up golden yellow in the glow of the setting sun. He was perching, head upright and calling boldly. Astonishingly he was not alone, but accompanied by eight swallows, each clinging lengthways to the surrounding bare branches.

Whether they were just basking in the sunlight, resting or roosting was unclear. Even a sudden burst of manic laughter from a green woodpecker, shrieking in alarm from the field edge below failed to disturb them.

These swallows nest across the lane in the outbuildings of Hassock Farm and are usually to be seen perched on the overhead phone line, before diving off to glide fast and low over the surrounding fields. The house martins that breed here at Newhouse Farm, also seem to be having a splendid summer. Numbers have grown steadily through the season.

Early one morning there was a flock of fifty or more fluttering and twittering in the crown of a neighbouring silver birch. On sunny days, they crowd onto the sloping roof of a nearby barn or jostle in rows on the power lines before heading off to feed.

THE CANDOVER VALLEY STORE SUPPER CLUB

What's for Supper? Follow the Candover Valley Store Supper Club!

Struggling with the age-old question of "what's for tea?" We've got you covered.

The Candover Valley Store has been running a regular Supper Club feature on our social media, bringing you quick, easy and delicious meal ideas made with ingredients you can pick up right here in the store.

Over the past few months, we've shared everything from hearty pasta bakes to fresh traybakes and simple midweek favourites. Here are just a few of the dishes that have already been inspiring local kitchens:

- Cauliflower Cheese Pasta Bake – a comfort food classic, made with local Lyburn cheese, pasta, and fresh cauliflower.
- Salmon, Tomato & Pesto Traybake – frozen salmon fillets from Chapman's, roasted with Isle of Wight tomatoes and topped with a spoonful of smoky tomato pesto.
- Bacon & Asparagus Pasta – Denhay bacon, local asparagus, lemon, garlic, crème fraîche and parmesan for a seasonal twist on an everyday supper.

The idea is simple: good food, using local produce, without the stress of complicated recipes.

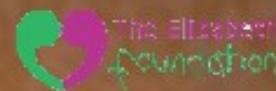

We'd love to hear from you.

Do you have a favourite quick supper sourced from the store that you'd like to see featured? Maybe a family recipe that makes the most of any local ingredients? Or perhaps a clever store-cupboard idea that deserves to be shared with the valley?

Email your suggestions to hello@cvcs.org.uk and follow us on Instagram or Facebook @candovervalleystore to see them featured.

We'd love to include your recipes in a future edition of the Supper Club!

As I write this newsletter, we are looking forward to a visit to Longstock to see their collection of Buddleias. It will be interesting to see how the Buddleias have fared in this unusually hot summer.

In September, we will be back in the village hall, and we have a very interesting and varied programme lined up for the winter months.

On Thursday 18th September we will welcome Rosy Hardy. Rosy founded Hardys Cottage Garden Plants nursery in 1988. We visited the nursery last year and many of us were tempted by the wide range of perennials that are grown there. Rosy exhibits at many of the national flower shows.

Rosy's talk will be 'Attracting insects to perennials, pots and containers'. Our indoor meetings are held at 7.30pm in Preston Candover Village Hall on the third Thursday of the month from September to April. In the summer months we visit some beautiful gardens. If you would like to join us at any time, guests are very welcome for a small fee and we always welcome new members for an annual subscription of only £15 per person.

Is your Parish meeting local housing needs?
Many rural communities are facing a quiet crisis. Local people - those who grew up in the village, work nearby, or have family ties, are increasingly unable to find homes they can afford. Without action, rural communities risk losing the very people who keep them thriving. Action Hampshire is a local charity who provides Rural Housing Enabling (RHE) services to support communities and parish councils to deliver the homes needed in their community. RHEs act as an independent advisor providing impartial assistance in developing affordable and community led housing for people with a local connection and will work with and on behalf of rural communities to address the shortage of affordable homes within the parish - homes specifically for local people who are priced out of the general housing market. These homes can be for rent or sale, and eligibility for occupancy is based on a strong local connection, such as living in the parish currently, having previously lived there with family still in the area or working locally in essential roles (e.g. teachers, shopkeepers, farm workers).

Why it matters Hampshire has a serious housing affordability gap. Property prices are high, while wages are below average, in 2023, the median house price was 10 times the average wage. This forces many households to leave their communities, which can lead to:

- Closure of local services like pubs, shops, and schools
- Loss of community diversity and sustainability
- Limited turnover in existing affordable housing stock

Unlike general housing developments, rural affordable housing built on rural exception sites is reserved for people with a local connection - helping villages retain their identity and support their services. Rural Exception Sites are small plots of land just outside or adjacent to village boundaries that are permitted as exceptions to standard planning rules because they meet a proven local need. These sites can accommodate small-scale housing developments (typically 4–10 homes) which are retained in perpetuity for occupancy by local people.

What can you do? Even if you're not directly affected, you can help raise awareness and encourage local action:

1. Speak to your Parish Council Ask them to contact Action Hampshire to request a free Parish Housing Profile. This provides an overview of the current housing situation in your area.
2. Support a Housing Need Survey This survey identifies the type and amount of housing needed locally. It provides evidence to help communities make informed decisions and may encourage landowners to offer land for development. These are usually commissioned by your Parish Council and can be carried out by Action Hampshire.
3. Know a local Landowner? If you know someone with land near the village, they might be interested in offering it as a Rural Exception Site. Landowners receive a fixed payment per property built but they will also be supporting their local community. Ask them to get in touch with Action Hampshire

Affordable housing is about more than bricks and mortar - it's about keeping building sustainable communities that will thrive for generations to come. Contact Action Hampshire housing@actionhampshire.org or find out more by visiting .actionhampshire.org

On the Farm— Julian Gibbons

We finished harvest on the 17th August with the spring oats. On the plus side it was generally dry and crops required minimal drying. We have sold most of the straw for baling at good prices. The Maris Otter winter barley and the peas achieved the budgeted yields if not slightly better. The wheat had good protein levels, so will earn a premium being used to produce bread flour of various grades.

On the downside, everyone has had good wheat protein levels, so financial premiums are disappearing fast. Protein levels are up because yields are down. This is bad for the spring malting barley, because we need low protein levels and quite a lot of it on the heavier clay soils is just a bit too high. Straw yields are way down as well, so straw sales will be down.

There has also been huge pressure on grain prices downwards due to the prospect of a good USA corn harvest. Financial premiums for malting barley have fallen as demand has fallen for beer. This is true on the continent as well so there will be limited export demand.

Another downside, our combine caught fire. Andy managed to put it out, but not before it caused a lot of wiring looms to melt. Robyn had called 999 and the fire brigade were able to damp it down and ensure there were no hidden hotspots which could reignite. So, we finished harvest with a hire combine.

You can't keep anything quiet in the farming world; everyone will find out eventually. We send nearly 2000t of grain to Trinity Grain at Micheldever Station. Suddenly drivers were saying "not having a good week, heard about your combine." This was whilst I was loading a lorry using Ben Robinson's JCB, because ours had an oil leak and was parked up waiting for a part for a day and a half.

However, we always have next year and the prospect of a better harvest.

The dry weather is causing concerns about drilling next years rapeseed crops and other early sown crops. Apart from oilseed rape we have pollen and nectar strips to get planted. We planted loads of strips last autumn, but they failed in the wet conditions, so we must get them established this autumn for our Sustainable Farming Initiative scheme that started last October.

After about 25mm of rain at the end of July we planted a small block of summer cover mix containing Phacelia, so hopefully Robyn's wedding guests can look over a purple blaze of colour instead of a bare cultivated stubble field. We just need it to come to flower quickly, so some late August overnight rain would be useful, the rain just needs to know when to stop.

Do come to the Alresford Show on the 6th September and please visit our Candover Valley Farmers cluster group stand in the education marquee to see what we have all been up to.
